

Media Contact:

Tasha Henneman

PRC

Tasha.henneman@prcsf.org

(415) 972-0830

www.prcsf.org

PRC Names Larry Roadcap as Chief Financial Officer

SAN FRANCISCO (August 12, 2022) – PRC, the San Francisco social impact nonprofit that elevates the lives of those affected by poverty, HIV/AIDS, substance use disorder or mental illness, announced Larry Roadcap as its new chief financial officer. Roadcap started work with PRC on August 8, 2022.

In this role, Roadcap will oversee and administer PRC’s financial accounting, budgeting and planning, government contracting and compliance processes, as well as manage critical relationships with City of San Francisco oversight agencies.

Roadcap’s professional experience encompasses nearly two decades in the nonprofit and corporate sectors. His global experience as a finance and risk management executive with extensive experience implementing IT systems to improve financial controls, regulatory compliance, accounting, tax, and financial reporting functions will advantage PRC. Most recently Roadcap served as interim chief financial officer for Charles E. Smith Jewish Day School in Rockville, MD, where he managed a $30M operating budget (890 students, 300 employees) and a $42M endowment.

"We're so excited to have Larry join the PRC team, as we know he will help us further our mission of helping clients achieve their full potential," said Brett Andrews, CEO of PRC. "With his extensive professional experience, Larry is uniquely qualified to have a significant impact on PRC's processes and financial foundation, as our organization evolves rapidly to meet the increasing needs of the most vulnerable in our city."

"I admire the work of PRC and I'm thrilled to join Brett and the rest of the leadership team," Roadcap said. "Delivering PRC's essential legal, social and behavioral health services is more critical now than ever, and I am honored to be charged with ensuring that PRC's internal fiscal processes and systems fully support that critical delivery."

Larry's experience spans finance, treasury, and enterprise technology management. He also has experience in the non-profit sector where he supported the financial operations and management of a large organization in Australia that addressed homelessness and low-income housing. Larry earned a B.A. in Economics at Georgetown University and a dual MBA from the University of California, Berkeley and Columbia Business School in Finance and Technology Management. Larry lives in Japantown with his husband and twin girls who will soon turn 13 years old.

About PRC

PRC is a San Francisco-based nonprofit social impact organization serving the needs of the City's most vulnerable people and communities. PRC's multifaceted programs offer supportive services to those struggling with substance use, HIV/AIDS and behavioral health challenges that most often stem from the broader systemic challenges of historic economic, social and racial inequities. PRC, in service since 1987, assists approximately 5,700 individuals annually. For more information, please visit www.prcsf.org.

###