

FOG Holiday Gathering

December 12, 2017

The SF HIV Frontline Organizing Group (FOG)

Capacity building

Practical tools

Cross agency collaboration

Learning Objectives

By the end of this training, frontline workers will be able to:

1. Describe the HIV-related services that HIVE provides.
2. Describe how the Muttville Seniors for Seniors program can benefit clients living with HIV.

Agenda

- 2:30 to 3pm: Registration and snacks
- 3 to 3:30pm: Annual Achievements Reflection
- 3:30 to 3:45pm: HIVE Spotlight
- 3:45 to 4:15pm: Muttville presentation and dog interaction
- 4:15 to 4:30pm: Announcements

Housekeeping

- Bathrooms are to the left of the kitchen
- Please be respectful of our speakers and silence your cell phones. If you need to make or take a call, please go outside
- Training evaluations will be emailed, so please check your emails and respond in the coming days (we need these evaluations in order to continue putting on trainings)

Survey Directions

The following slides contain several survey questions. Answers are completely anonymous.

To Begin:

1. Text SFHIVFOG to 22333 or use the following URL: PollEv.com/sfhivfog
2. If texting: wait until you receive a confirmation text stating “You’ve joined SF HIV FOG’s session (SFHIVFOG).”
3. Text the corresponding answer letter to be counted or touch your answer if you are using the URL.

Which pun is the best?

What's more amazing than a talking dog? A spelling bee!

What do you call a dog magician? A Labracadabrador!

What kind of bees drop things? Fumble bees!

What kind of dog can fit in your hand? A Palm-eranian!
