PRC Names Brent Willman as Chief Financial Officer

SAN FRANCISCO (July 15, 2024) – PRC, the San Francisco nonprofit that offers comprehensive services for individuals living with HIV/AIDS, substance use disorder, and mental illness, today announced Brent Willman as its new chief financial officer.

In this role, Willman will oversee and administer PRC’s financial accounting, budgeting and planning, government contracting and compliance processes, as well as manage critical relationships with City of San Francisco oversight agencies.

Willman brings four decades of experience as an accomplished finance professional. He has a robust background in managing rapid growth while maintaining efficiencies and internal controls across various industries including media, entertainment, and non-profit organizations. With extensive experience in financial reporting and analysis, budgeting and forecasting, and strategic long-range planning, Brent has held senior roles as CFO of the Pac-12 Conference and SVP Finance at Discovery Communications' OWN Oprah Winfrey Network.

"I am looking forward to working with Brent," said Chuan Teng, PRC CEO. "His proven track record in financial leadership is invaluable as we continue work towards our long-term sustainability goals"

"I am thrilled to join this dynamic team and look forward to working together to drive our financial success and innovation. PRC’s dedicated senior team and board have welcomed me with open arms and I look forward to building the future success of PRC." said Brent.

Known for implementing financial systems, enhancing cost control, and fostering operational efficiencies, Brent has successfully navigated high-stakes environments and led major initiatives, including the financial oversight of multi-million-dollar budgets and the integration of diverse business units. Brent holds a BS in Business Administration with a focus on Accounting from California State University, Fresno, and is a former Certified Public Accountant.

About PRC

PRC is a San Francisco-based nonprofit social impact organization serving the needs of the City’s most vulnerable people and communities. PRC’s multifaceted programs offer supportive services to those struggling with substance use, HIV/AIDS and behavioral health challenges that most often stem from the broader systemic challenges of historic economic, social and racial inequities. PRC, in service since 1987, assists approximately 5,700 individuals annually. For more information, please visit www.prcsf.org.
